2. Underlining the period of a sentence is not needed.
3. Instead of “if”, “is” was typed. Dumb mistake.
4. Never end a sentence using a preposition.
5. If “either” is used, then do not use “and”; use “or” to match the phrase better.
6. If combining two complete thoughts together by the word “and”, use a comma before the word “and” to separate the two thoughts.
7. Use a present tense verb rather than the present participle. (i.e., Use “flows” instead of “flowing”)
