

Please Note: It is recommended that you save your response as you complete each question.

This quiz covers information from Appendix A in the text and from information mentioned during in class discussion of the debate.

Question 1

(1 point)  Save

In a discussion about debate propositions, the issue of deals with the boundary that defines what issues are relevant and what issues are not relevant for a given proposition.

Question 2

(1 point)  Save

is the issue that establishes whether a judge can vote for or against a case by the affirmative.

Question 3

(1 point)  Save

Using a specific example to say that it is typical of the entire proposition involves in the issue of

Question 4

(1 point)  Save

A flow sheet is a two-dimensional representation of all the presented in a debate by both teams.

Question 5

(1 point)  Save

In debate, the is the statement of the order for each participant to speak and how much time is allocated for each speaker.

Question 6

(1 point)  Save

During a debate if a speaker begins an ad hominem attack, a debater may stand and request a point of to address the attack by the speaker.

Question 7

(1 point)  Save

When debating policy issues, the organizational pattern that works well in developing the four stock issues is the

Question 8

(1 point)  Save

According to the principles of case construction, the four themes covered in the introduction of a speech are the

Question 9

(1 point)  Save

In policy debate, when detailing the solution to the problem as you see it, you must handle the stock issues of and

Question 10

(1 point)  Save

speeches are used to synthesize the arguments that have been developed in the debate and to explain what the most important arguments are that should govern the final decision.

Save All Responses

Go To Submit Quiz