

History 2020
Quiz #1

I said to General Howard: "...I do not believe that the Great Spirit Chief gave one kind of men the right to tell another kind of men what they must do."

Chief Joseph

If, then, we look to the origin and definition of these classes, we shall find it impossible to deduce any obligations which one of them bears to the other. The class distinctions simply result from the different degrees of success with which men have availed themselves of the chances which were presented to them. Instead of endeavoring to redistribute the acquisitions which have been made between the existing classes, our aim should be to increase, multiply, and extend the chances.

Richard Pratt

Nature is rich; but everywhere man, the heir of manure is poor. Never in this happy country or elsewhere -- except in the Land of Miracle, where "they did all eat and were filled" -- had there been enough of anything for the people. Never since time began have all the sons and daughters of men been all warm, and all filled, and all shod and roofed. Never yet have all the virgins, wise or foolish, been able to fill their lamps with oil.

William Graham Sumner

Thus is the problem of rich and poor to be solved. The laws of accumulation will be left free, the laws of distinction free. Individualism will continue, but the millionaire will be but a trustee for the poor, intrusted for a season with a great part of the increased wealth of the community, but administering it for the community far better than it could or would have done for itself....

Andrew Carnegie

There's an honest graft, and I'm an example of how it works. I might sum up the whole thing by sayin': "I seen my opportunities and I took 'em."

Henry George

1. California Chinese
2. Ida Lindgren
3. N. A. Jennings
4. Chief Joseph
5. Richard Pratt
6. Jay Gould
7. William Graham Sumner
8. Henry Demarest Lloyd

9. Andrew Carnegie
10. Henry George
11. Thomas O'Donnell
12. Domestic Servants
13. Jacob Riis
14. S. Merlino
15. William L. Riordon

The conditions which surround us best justify our cooperation: we meet in the midst of a nation brought to the verge of moral, political, and material ruin. Corruption dominates the ballot box, the legislatures, the Congress, and touches even the ermine of the bench. The people are demoralized; most of the States have been compelled to isolate the voters at the polling-places to prevent universal intimidation or bribery. The newspapers are largely subsidized or muzzled; public opinion silenced; business prostrated; our homes covered with mortgages; labor impoverished; and the land concentrating in the hands of capitalists. The urban workmen are denied the right of organization for self-protection; imported pauperized labor beat down their wages; a hireling standing army, unrecognized by our laws, is established to shoot them down, and they are rapidly degenerating into European conditions. The fruits of the toil of millions are boldly stolen to build up colossal fortunes for a few, unprecedented in the history of mankind, and the possessors of these, in turn, despise the republic and endanger liberty. From the same prolific womb of governmental injustice we breed the two great classes -- tramps and millionaires.

1

Our friend, Admiral Dewey...caught the genius of the Philippine people, and if he had been left alone many valuable lives would have been spared and many millions of treasure saved. Be convinced, the Philippines are for the Filipinos. We are a virile race. We have never assimilated with our former oppressors, and we are not likely to assimilate with you.

5

X In his failure to realize and impress this last point. Mr. Washington is especially to be criticized. His doctrine has tended to make the whites, North and South, shift the burden of the Negro problem to the Negro's shoulders and stand aside as critical and rather pessimistic spectators; when in fact the burden belongs to the nation, and the hands of none of us are clean if we bend not our energies to righting these great wrongs.

11

10

We are about to accept gauge of battle with this natural foe to liberty and shall, if necessary, spend the whole force of the national to check and nullify its pretensions and its power. We are glad, now that we see the facts with no veil of false pretense about them, to fight thus for the ultimate peace of the world and for the liberation of its peoples....

12

X This lord who practically owns the earth tells you that we are fighting this war to make the world safe for democracy -- he, who shuts out all humanity from his private domain; he, who profiteers at the expense of the people who have been slain and mutilated by multiple thousands, under pretense of being the great American patriot. It is he, this identical patriot who is in faith the arch-enemy of the people, it is he that you need to wipe from power. It is he who is a far greater menace to your liberty and your well-being than the Prussian junkers on the other side of the Atlantic.

13

14

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Populist Party Platform | 9. Mother Jones |
| 2. Gunner Jesse Blake | 10. Booker T. Washington |
| 3. Pinkerton Guard | 11. W.E.B. DuBois |
| 4. N. F. Thompson & Samuel Gompers | 12. Woodrow Wilson |
| 5. Emilio Aguinaldo | 13. Eugene V. Debs |
| 6. Jane Addams | 14. Doughboy Letter |
| 7. Royal Melendy | 15. A. Mitchell Palmer |
| 8. John D. Rockefeller | 16. Stanley B. Norvell |

History 2020 Quiz #3

2

I should put an even stronger emphasis on the desirability of the largest possible independence between government and business. Each ought to be sovereign in its own sphere. When government comes under the influence of business, the tendency is to develop an administration which closes the door of opportunity; becomes narrow and selfish in its outlook, and results in an oligarch. When government enters the field of business with its great resources, it has a tendency to extravagance and inefficiency, but, having the power to crush all competition, likewise closes the door of opportunity and results in monopoly.

1

Faith in America, faith in our tradition of personal responsibility, faith in our institutions, faith in ourselves demand that we recognize the new terms of the old social contract. We shall fulfill them.... We must do so, lest a rising tide of misery engendered by our common failure, engulf us all. But failure is not an American habit; and in the strength of great hope we must all shoulder our common load.

6

3

For 20 years I have been in the battle to provide that, so long as America has, or can produce, an abundance of the things which make life comfortable and happy, that none should own so much of the things which he does not need and cannot use as to deprive the balance of the people of a reasonable proportion of the necessities and convenience of life. The whole line of my political thought has always been that America must face the time when the whole country would shoulder the obligation which it owes to every child born on earth -- that is, a fair chance to life, liberty, and happiness.

8

6

Through four years of experience this New Deal attack upon free institutions has emerged as the transcendent issue in America. All the men who are seeking for mastery in the world today are using the same weapons. They sing the same songs. They all promise the joys of Elysium without effort.

10

8

Yesterday, December 7, 1941 -- a date which will live in infamy -- the United States of America was suddenly and deliberately attacked by naval and air forces of the Empire of Japan.

11

1. Calvin Coolidge
2. Reinhold Niebuhr
3. Ku Klux Klan
4. Margaret Sanger
5. Marcus Garvey
6. Franklin Roosevelt
7. Working People
8. Huey Long

9. Jose Flores
10. Herbert Hoover
11. Franklin Roosevelt
12. Grant Hirabayashi
13. Varian Fry
14. Soldiers
15. Willard Waller

5

Today we are engaged in a final, all-out battle between communistic atheism and Christianity. The modern champion of communism have selected this as the time. And, ladies and gentlemen, the chips are down – they are truly down.

4

In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist.

10

Your imagination, your initiative, and your indignation will determine whether we build a society where progress is the servant of our needs, or a society where old values and new and visions buried under unbridled growth. For in your time we have the opportunity to move not only toward the rich society and the powerful society, but upward to the Great Society.

11

One day the South will know that when these disinherited children of God sat down at lunch counters they were in reality standing up for the best in this American dream and the most sacred values in our Judeo-Christian heritage, and thus, carrying our whole nation back to those great wells of democracy which were dug deep by the Founding Fathers in the formulation of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence.

13

We believe the time has come to move beyond the abstract argument, discussion and sympathy over the status and special nature of women which has raged in America in recent years; the time has come to confront, with concerted action, that now prevent women from enjoying the equality of opportunity and freedom of choice which is their right as individual Americans, and as human beings.

15

- | | |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. General Marshall | 9. North Dakota Civil Defense |
| 2. George F. Kennan | 10. Dwight D. Eisenhower |
| 3. NSC-68 | 11. Lyndon B. Johnson |
| 4. Joseph McCarthy | 12. Port Huron Statement |
| 5. Korean POW | 13. Martin Luther King |
| 6. Edith M. Stern | 14. Black Power |
| 7. Vance Packard | 15. National Organization for Women |
| 8. Rosa Parks | |

History 2020 Quiz # 5

4

The prognosis is bad that the war can be brought to a satisfactory conclusion within the next two years. The large-unit operations probably will not do it; negotiations probably will not do it. While we should continue to pursue both of these routes in trying for a solution in the short run, we should recognize that success from them is a mere possibility, not a probability.

2

I think that there is no doubt about the seriousness of the problem we've got. We have a cancer within, close to the Presidency, that is growing. It is growing daily. It's compounded, growing geometrically now, because it compounds itself. That will be clear if I, you know, explain some of the details of why it is. Basically, it is because (1) we are being blackmailed; (2) People are going to start perjuring themselves very quickly that have not had to perjure themselves to protect other people in the line.

7

A state criminal abortion statute of the current Texas type, that excepts, from criminal only a lifesaving procedure on behalf of the mother without regard to pregnancy state and without recognition of the other interests involved, is violative of the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

8

I believe we shall rise to the challenge. I believe that communism is another sad, bizarre chapter in human history whose last pages even now are being written. I believe this because the source of our strength in the quest for human freedom is not material, but spiritual. And because it knows no limitation, it must terrify and ultimately triumph over those who would enslave their fellow man.

9

For two centuries, we've done the hard work of freedom. And tonight we lead the world in facing down a threat to decency and humanity. What is at stake is more than one small country, it is a big idea: a new world order, where diverse nations are drawn together in common cause to achieve the universal aspirations of mankind: peace and security, freedom and the rule of law. Such is a world worthy of our struggle and worthy of our children's future.

12

13

1. John F. Kennedy
2. Robert McNamara
3. Robert D. Heinl, Jr.
4. Arthur E. Woodley
5. Tran Thi Gung
6. George Wallace
7. Watergate Tapes
8. Roe v. Wade

9. Ronald Reagan
10. Vietnamese Immigrant
11. Bush v. Gore
12. George W. Bush
13. National Security Strategy
14. Khalid Sheikh Muhammad
15. Tony Campolo